

G. Harris

Audover, Oct 20, 1875

My dear Professor Gray

I can hardly thank you enough for your letter received last evening, the such candid commendation as yours atones for a hundred prejudiced attacks and criticisms. There remain an article on the "Bible" and one, a sort of Summary, on "Christianity Absolute and Universal" We think of publishing the series in a book & to be issued before

Christmas, adding some notes and explanation. Do you think it publishes in that form would be useful?

If I am called again to Cambridge for any service
I shall certainly avail myself of your proffered hospitality

Please remember me with kind regards to Mrs Gray and believe me

Most truly Yours

George Hoar